Duhart-Milon 2016: Quality score vs price per bottle (£)

Whilst the release price for 2016 is more expensive than the current market price of the five previous vintages, it still might represent better value than similarly rated 2009.

Bettane+ Desseauve

“[...] Possibly the most complete wine in the last thirty years.”

89-91

Antonio Galloni

Jancis Robinson

“Dark glowing crimson. Black pepper and intensity on the nose. Bone dry and enormous energy and savour. Real elegance and some majesty. Neat and well balanced. Bravo! Very much speaks of the vintage with its freshness and intensity.”
