Figeac 2016: Quality score vs price per bottle (£)

Figeac is rediscovering its form after many years as a sleeper, and the hefty price increases in 2016 reflect this. Of recent vintages, only the 2010 is more expensive in the market.

979 2016 Quality

“ Lively and very Figeac. Just as it should be. Zesty and confident and of the place [...] Frédéric Faye and the Manoncourt family should be very proud. Classic. Racy and juicy and beautifully balanced. Long. ”

“ [...]The gravel soils allowed the 26% cabernet franc and 38% sauvignon to be expressed with finesse and unprecedented depth on this bank. ”

Wine Lister’s Founding Members cited Figeac as one of the 15 wines that have experienced the greatest rise in demand over recent years.
